

Károly MOCSÁRI (Piano - Hungary)

Hungarian pianist Károly Mocsári, prizewinner of several international piano competition, including Van Cliburn Texas, Arthur Rubinstein Tel Aviv, Barcelona, Athen, Montreal, London Terence Judd Award, Paris Cziffra Award and the 1986 Budapest Liszt Competition.

He has been invited to play with several major orchestras around the world, including the London Philharmonia, Manchester Hallé, Jerusalem Symphony, Basel Symphony, Budapest Festival, Hungarian National Philharmonic, English Chamber, Berlin Radio, Istanbul Chamber, Venezuela Simon Bolivar, New Zealand Symphony, Montreal and Israel Symphony Orchestras.

Károly Mocsári has worked with a number of musicians, among them Yuri Bashmet, Sir Andrew Davis, Zoltán Kocsis, Mstislav Rostropovitch, Barbara Hendricks, Sergei Nakariakov, Vladimir Spivakov, the Keller, Takács, and Tokyo String Quartets.

He has toured across Europe, North and South America, Asia, and North Africa in various prestigious festivals and concert halls. Mr. Mocsári's recordings are available on Hungaraton, Timpani, REM, Agon, Philips, and Hänssler.

He is frequently invited to be a juror at international piano competitions, including the Liszt International Piano Competitions in Utrecht, Budapest, Parma, Los Angeles and Weimar, and gives masterclasses.

Artistic Adviser of the French Liszt Society.

www.karolymocsari.com